

Self love

The way we think about ourselves can have a big impact on our wellbeing. Take time to think about yourself positively. Write five kind comments in the thought bubbles - these can be your positive traits, motivation reminders, things you are grateful for or any other things that make you happy.

